ROMANTIC NATURE

You love the way the ocean loves the shore — with a depth that never fully retreats. 壬 Water, your Day Master, makes you one of the most intensely feeling people in any room, even when nothing on the surface betrays it. You do not fall in love gradually. You resist, observe, hold back — and then surrender completely. There is no halfway with you. The people who have loved you know this: that your care, once given, is total and unwavering.

IDEAL PARTNER

Your perfect counterpart is Wood energy — 甲 or 乙 — the person who knows how to grow in the direction of your current. Where you are depth, they are direction. Where you are feeling, they are form. A Wood partner gives your emotional intensity somewhere to go — they absorb your care, channel your power, and in return grow more beautiful for having known you.
